Before the Court is the Government's request for an order detaining the defendant on the ground that there is a serious risk defendant will flee. The Government is not entitled to a rebuttable presumption

The Court has considered all of the evidence adduced at the hearing and the arguments and/or statements of counsel. The Court has also considered: (1) the nature and circumstances of the offenses:
(2) the weight of evidence against the defendant; (3) the history and characteristics of the defendant; and
(4) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community.
